MAIN STREET, AUSTIN,

SALT LAKE NEWS DEPOT.

Klopfensteine & Co., Sacramento, Cal.
Booth & Co., Sacramento, Cal.

A guerrilla was lately captured near Nashville. He begged hard for his life but confessed that he belonged to a large secret rebel association in Tennessee. He boasted that he could travel all over the State by their help with almost perfect security. After his confession the guerrilla received another degree. He was shot.

There is no crime of however dark a character, but in the hands of a skillful advocate may be made to assume a very different appearance, and the wretch who is guilty of every species of villainy is transformed by a practised pleader into an object of pity, instead of hatred. The thief becomes a kleptomaniac, the seducer exchanges places with his victim and seems more sinned against than sinning, the murderer is suddenly found to be afflicted with insanity, vice is made to assume a most virtuous look and thus, which is so repulsive in itself as to defy the utmost skill of legal sophistry to render it less odious, is set down to the credit of defective education.

Persons familiar with every phrase of mormon policy in Utah are astonished at the apparent want of interest manifested by the out-side world in the success or failure of radical errors in social and religious policy, that in practice are criminal and which, if not suppressed before attaining maturity of strength, will surely produce an abundant harvest of evil in the early future. The isolation hitherto enjoyed, has given the bold and ambitious leaders comparative immunity from serious interference in their nefarious schemes and this fact, combined with the studied means employed to dull the eye of criticism and silence the voice of censure, has enabled them, thus far, to escape attention and secure a measure of success, whereof they, at least, have no reason to complain.

While there were none here to oppose them and give notoriety to their vile practices, the varnishing process was easily performed, but now it requires the employment of special means and extra pains must be taken to counteract the effect of damaging exposures at home. Hence a plant tool is found whose business it is, in correspondence abroad, to gloat over the naked and infamous truth, and give to that, which is repulsive and disgusting to the sight of the close observer, a more pleasing or less obnoxious appearance when seen at a distance through a deceptive medium.

A man of loose morality and with dim perceptions of principle, by nature unscrupulous and by practice perfect in dissimulation, one in short who has by hypocrisy reduced to a science would be the proper instrument for such a purpose. An apologist for concubinage should himself be a polygamist, although it is not necessary, indeed it might prove injurious, to mention the fact in connection with one's self when assuming to be a liberal and disinterested exponent of any system of villainy for the benefit of those who happen to become inquisitive. Such are they, among the Saints, who advocate their cause abroad whether as resident correspondents of influential newspapers, or as false-tongued missionaries in distant lands. Disguising their evil natures under a smooth exterior, boldly denying facts, or explaining away those that cannot be denied, they succeed in deceiving even the wise and in making many proselytes among the ignorant. Mormonism, as seen in the peculiar correspondence of Liberal and reached abroad, is a very different creed than what we know it to be, who stand in its immediate presence and look upon its loathsome self and see its monstrous deformities.

When men cease to listen to the special pleadings of creatures in the service of the arch schemer of Mormonism, the high priest of polygamy, when the world closes its ears and the press its columns to their specious sophistries and give due heed to witnesses not unborn, we may hope to see their influence languish abroad with the decay of the system here. There are many evidences that this result is fast being reached—for this we have labored, and we hail the consummation with pleasure.

The spirited Sacramento Bee thus charges home the cause of the late national bereavement:

Upon the treason-sympathizing press of California, as well as the traitor sheets in the North, do we charge home the primal cause of this act of immortal infamy. All the well tempered post-obituary praise they may now seek to pour upon the memory of the departed statesman, will not expunge the damning blot of guilt that stamps them as accessories to the murder, at heart if not in person. The record stands out boldly; all the rain from heaven shall not whiten the treason-blackened pages of the Copperhead papers of America. Far above their mandarin, sickly, sentimental whine that "the South has lost her best friend," rises something more impressive than their barlot-like repentance in the last hours of life. It is the stark and gory form of the immolated champion of Freedom, falling to earth beneath the murderous stroke which their deadly venomous hearts and treacherous coward hands have for the past four years aimed at his devoted head.

WE AGREE—HANGING IS TOO GOOD FOR HIM—JOHN MITCHELL.—This notorious renegade, vagabond and traitor, remained behind when the more decent rebels left Richmond, and is now on parole under Gen. Weitzel. Such treatment is a mistake. Mitchell has always justified, even urged, the most cruel and unrelenting abuse of our soldiers who were taken prisoners. He ought to be made to swallow a dose of his own poison. The dirtiest and gloomiest cell in Castle Thunder or Libby Prison, with moderate rations of raw pork and hard crackers, would be in his case but means of simple justice. We would not have John hung. Government need not resort to this extreme measure in the case of the vilest traitor. But it would be a splendid idea to put him for a year or two as a workman on one of those "well stock'd plantations" for which he used to sigh, with some "American citizen of African descent" as his overseer, commissioned to keep him well up to his tasks.—Albany Journal.

Capt. Joseph Stewart, 3d Artillery, to repair to Fort Klamath to investigate matters in relation to the erection of that post.

Surgeon C. A. Kirkpatrick, 8th Infantry, C. V., (formerly of the 3d) for duty at Fort Point.

Company H, 9th Infantry, on recruiting service in San Francisco, California.

Company I, 9th Infantry, relieved from duty as Provost Guard in San Francisco.

Capt. George A. Thurston, Nevada Infantry, appointed Assistant Commissary of Musters, to muster in o service such of the enlisted men at Camp Ruby as have not been regularly mustered.

Second Lieut. George E. Robinson, 2d Cavalry C. V., mustered in and ordered to duty with his regiment at Camp Union.

The resignation of Capt. Edward Bale, Native California Cavalry, is accepted, to take effect on the 20th instant.

TRUE GRIT, OF THE RIGHT STAMP.—The President of the United States Telegraph Company in New York received a dispatch from H. A. Clute, Division Superintendent, stating that the windows of the company's office in Auburn were smashed in because it displayed a photograph of President Lincoln draped in mourning. The telegram also states that the Post Office was served in the same manner for the same reason. A proper reward was offered for the arrest of the parties perpetrating the outrage. James McKaye, President of the Company, sent the following dispatch in reply:

New York, April 17th.
To H. A. Clute, Division Superintendent United States Telegraph: Direct that our office at Auburn be fully draped in mourning, and that a portrait of our martyred President, similarly draped, be displayed at every pane of glass. Defend the office and the portraits with powder, lead and steel until after the obsequies on Wednesday.

NOTICE TO QUIT—"SERVED HIM RIGHT."
—A Baptist clergyman from Bellingham, Massachusetts, preached by exchange in Milford recently. Neither in prayer nor sermon did he recognize the great woe that was oppressing the heart of every hearer. The omission was so clearly intentional, that at the close of the first service a committee of the church waited upon the unfaithful preacher, and ordered him to leave town immediately, which he did.

LOS ANGELES, May 17—12 m.

About the 10th of March last, Messrs. Wardwell and Thomas, accompanied by men employed by them, started for Salt Lake City with about 4,000 head of sheep. They passed Camp Cady all right, but after an absence of several days thousands of their sheep returned to the Mohave. Messrs. Lane and Johnson who have a ranch near Camp Cady, have gathered together 1,100 of the sheep. It is supposed that the Indians have murdered. Wardwell, Thomas and the men with them. Dr. Dickey the Public Administrator of San Bernardino county, has sent out men under an order of court to take the sheep and other property belonging to the deceased for the benefit of their legal representatives.

ELOQUENCE.--The Springfield correspondent of the Post gives the following as a verbatim report of a speech delivered at the late session of the Illinois Legislature before the honorable body, upon the sheep question:

Mr. Speaker: I think sheep is paramount to dogs, and our laws hadn't ought to be that dogs, can commit ravages on sheep.—[Applause in the gallery.] Mr. Speaker: I represent sheep on this floor. [Laughter and cries of "That's so," from the other members.] [Up where I live, sheep is more account than dogs, and although you may tell me that dogs are useful, still I say, on the other hand, that sheep is usefuller; and show me the man that represents dogs on this floor, and thinks that dogs is more important than sheep, and I will show you a man that is tantamount to a copperhead. Mr. Speaker, I am through.]

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

GOD'S NOBLEST WORK—AN HONEST MAN!
THE BRAVE, THE WISE, THE GOOD.

Ambitious without vanity,
Discreet without fear,
Confident without rashness.

In disaster calm, in success moderate—in all things upright and true!

The Hero! the Patriot! the Statesman!
The guiding star of the People!
The friend of the oppressed.

The deliverer of the bondsmen.
A victim to slavery.

A martyr in the cause of Human Liberty
He died that his Country might be FREE.

A grateful Nation will mourn his name
Perpetuate his principles.

—Sac. Bee.

OUR old friend, Prof. O. J. Goldrick, who has, for the past half dozen years been connected with the Rocky Mountain News, has resigned his position as associate editor and will soon be connected with the Daily Union Vedette at Camp Douglas, Utah. In this change the readers of the News will lose the best writer ever connected with the Colorado press, and one of the best hearted fellows the world ever saw. We hope our friend will not embrace the peculiar religion of Mormondom, but, on the contrary, as many of Brigham's fairs as he pleases.—Atchison Free Press.

NATIONAL AID TO THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The President of the Central Pacific Railroad has received the following important dispatch from the agent of the Company at the East:

To Leland Stanford:—I received yesterday $1,258,000 United States bonds for account of Central Pacific Railroad Company of California.

C. P. HUNTINGTON." This amount of bonds, we understand is the entire Government subsidy for the first thirty-one miles of the road. It will aid the Company in rapidly pushing the extension.—S. F. Bulletin.

PARSON Brownlow, Governor of Tennessee, has been awarded $25,000 in a suit for damages inflicted by imprisonment and persecution at the hands of certain prominent rebels of Knoxville, who is to be assessed upon said rebels who having danced, must now pay the violinist.

The 11th Indiana regiment has been ordered to the coast of Mexico. The 11th is at present doing duty at Washington, and was the escort of the remains of President Lincoln at the funeral obsequies on the 19th.—Chattanooga Gazette

BY A RESIDENT OF UTAH.

I attach herewith a table which I think will give to my readers at once a clear view of the amount paid into the hands of the Trustee in Trust by the toil-worn sons of earth in Utah, during the past sixteen years of the settlement of the Territory. I commend it to the careful perusal of an intelligent public as the result of patient investigation, believing that its results are approximately correct. There are many minor articles of Utah products omitted which might have been inserted; but the revenue arising from them can be generously afforded for the extensive margin Brigham Young will need, when called to settle accounts with his unfortunate people, an event desired by all lovers of justice, though it is to be feared, an improbable one; but one which, if it ever should transpire, will shake to the very center the state of things existing here, be the downfall of the heartless villains whom the just among mankind already execrate and a most potent "eye-opener" to their vision beclouded servitors:

NOT ALL GONE YET.—A large and brilliant party was given a few weeks since not one hundred miles from New York, and the festivities were kept up to so late an hour, that the fair hostess became completely wearied out. Some fifteen minutes after the lady supposed the last of her guests had left, she walked into the supper-room where the gas had been turned down, and gave vent to her wearied spirit by ejaculating: "Thank God, they are all stuffed and gone."

"Not at all," squeaked out a voice; "I have returned to find an ear-ring which I supposed was dropped at the supper-table." The hostess' chagrin can be better imagined than described when, on turning round, she discovered one of her most fashionable neighbors.

REV. Henry Ward Beecher, just returned from the excursion to Fort Sumter, preached to his congregation at Brooklyn, Sunday morning, on the assassination. Not one-third of the people who came together could get into the house. Mr. Beecher spoke an affectionate eulogy of the departed President, and with confidence in the new, and exhorted his hearers to imitate the justice, moderation and mercy of Mr. Lincoln.

A contract to furnish the Government with 85,000 bushels of corn, to be delivered at Fort Kearney and Laramie, and other points of the Salt Lake route was awarded to Messrs. Willis & Claggett, of St. Joseph, Missouri recently — Ex.

Local Matters.

In consequence of the anticipated departure of a portion of the command from this post, the Good Templars who are to remain held a meeting last evening, when arrangements were made to organize a new Lodge and make it a permanent one for the post. The order of Good Templars has been sustained by the soldiers of Gen. Connor's command in a manner alike creditable to Garrison Lodge and the command, and the Lodge at this post has ever been considered as the Banner Lodge of California, it having worked under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of that state, from which it received its charter.

Owing to the expected departure of the 3d Inf. the charter goes with them. In organizing the new Lodge in camp, it is to be hoped that every officer and soldier who has the cause of humanity at heart, who desires to make a reformation in his character, and who desires to promote the noble cause of temperance, will come forward and enroll themselves as members of the brotherhood.

The celebrated Banjo Player and Jig Dancer, Mike Quinn, will give one of his superior entertainments at the Camp Theater this evening.

Quinn, as a professional gentleman, stands in high repute on the Pacific coast, as many of our Volunteers who know him can testify. Give him a good house.

ARRIVED.—Capt. Morrill with his detachment, sent out with the Josephite train, returned to camp yesterday. They found the roads in very bad condition, but the train was getting along as well as could be expected. The Captain thinks the people composing it stand in great want of somebody to direct them, being helpless as children in the most ordinary matters.

A THOROUGH investigation is being had of the burglary committed in camp on Wednesday night last, and we have no doubt but that the guilty, whoever he or they may be, will be brought to justice.

REV. NATHAN McLEOD will preach at Daft's Hall, S. L. City, to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 1-2 P. M. He will also hold divine services in camp at 2 o'clock P. M.

THERE has been a Postmaster appointed for the town of Stockton, Toole Co., and henceforth the mails will be carried weekly to that point.

MAURICE O'CONNELL.—A late Irish paper gives an obituary of one Maurice O'Connell, a celebrated shot, whose favorite amusement was to shoot the little curs which rushed out from the little cabins to bark at him, as he drove along the road. As he was walking in the streets of Tralee, one day with a friend, they espied a luckless tobacconist peacefully smoking his cigar in front of his own shop-door. "You can't knock that fellow's cigar out of his mouth," suggested his friend. "Can't I?" said Maurice; "you shall see." This time, unluckily, his aim was not as true as usual, for he carried away the tip of the tobacconist's nose, and had to pay a fine of £400 for the pleasure of performing the operation.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—There was, "once upon a time," an old pilferer Down East, on whom all the thefts, far and near, were at once charged, when any loss was discovered. The old fellow bore the universal "onus" patiently for a time; but finding that in some instances he was suffering for the sins of others, he issued a Caution to the Public in the usual form, "I hereby forbid all persons from this date, to steal on my account and risk. I am no longer accountable for their trespasses, as I have more than I can account for of my own."

YOUR FARE, MISS. A young lady from the rural districts, lately entered a city railroad car. Pretty soon the conductor approached her, and said:

"Your fare, Miss."

She blushed and looked confused, but said nothing. The conductor was rather astonished at this, but ventured to remark once more:

"Your fare, Miss."

This time the pink on her cheeks deepened to carnation, as the rustic beauty replied:

"Well, if I am good looking, you hadn't ought ter say it out loud afore folks."

The passengers in the car roared with laughter, and her lover at once settled the fare.

CAPTAIN CHAS. E. SHORTER, of the rebel engineers, serving on the staff of General Lee, was among the number captured. He intimated the loss of the South-side road was something like "a blessing in disguise," and stated that the rebels expected to win their independence within a month. "Certainly," says a bold private standing near and listening to the conversation, "we intend to give you your liberty in that time."

The late Judge Davis of Massachusetts, who was a small undersized man, being once in the company of six large men, one of them said: "Judge Davis, how do you feel in the presence of six gentlemen of such amplitude of dimensions as ourselves?" "Feel," said the little, lean man, raising himself to his greatest height, "I feel like a four-pence half penny among six cents."

A MAN in Madison county, Ill., after considerable experiment, has produced ten pounds of silk fully equal to what is imported from France and Italy, from one hundred and twenty thousand cocoons. He has estimated the cost and profits, and is now prepared to enter into the silk business extensively. His last produce has been on exhibition in St. Louis.
